The M.W. Grand Master delivered the following address:

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.BRETHREN OF GRAND LODGE:

It affords me great pleasure to extend to each of you a fraternal greeting and hearty welcome to the Fifty-Fourth Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

Those of you who are meeting with us for the first time, I cordially welcome and hope you may take an active and personal part in the business of the session, so that you may carry home to your individual Lodges the benefits of our deliberations.

I am sure it will be most gratifying to you to know that the Masonic year just drawn to a close has been one of unusual prosperity.

The V. W. Grand Secretary reports all records broken in this jurisdiction. The same reports come from other

Grand Lodges throughout Canada, the increase in membership has been phenomenal. Nevertheless we cannot as Masons and thoughtful citizens overlook the fact that throughout the English-speaking world the year has been one of anxiety and unrest. Anxious, fearing that the socialistic tendencies with which many of our people are becoming imbued may develop into Anarchism and communism, which at the present time are the curse of European Countries.

At the conclusion of the deliberations of the Allied Leaders entered into at the signing of the Armistice, hope was expressed that they had solved the problem of war by having universal peace proclaimed throughout the world through the so-called League of Nations.

While it is perhaps too soon to pass judgment on the conclusions arrived at, there is much evidence that war still wages throughout the greater part of Europe. Call it by what name we may, the fact remains that bloody battles are being fought every day by several of the countries which were engaged in the Great War.

It looks almost like a War of Extinction, for some of them, and it is to be hoped that sanity will soon once more return, for the world to-day is diseased mentally and requires careful treatment.

Many prominent members of the Craft throughout the Empire are also the prominent statesmen in whose hands the future destiny of the country, I might say the world, will be moulded.

With them, there is an optimistic tone that is encouraging. Grateful we should be to the Giver of all Good that here in this Province of New Brunswick the unrest has not even touched our threshold.

God grant it may pass by on the other side and that we may continue to live in peace and harmony. I would remind you at this juncture, that we as Masons, whether as individuals or as a Craft, who are ever loyal to our country and government, must not forget that the present more than ever is the time for inculcating a sure faith in the future of this our own country, Canada, and hold fast to the principles for which Masonry stands.

NECROLOGY.

The Angel of Death has as usual entered our ranks during the year.

For all our departed brethren, we can only express regret at our loss and hope of their gain in Eternal Life.

OFFICIAL VISITS:

At the last Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, reference was made to an invitation from the Grand Lodge of Maine inviting the Grand Master of New Brunswick to participate in the celebration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of their Grand Lodge. As I had a business engagement in Ontario entered into before receiving the above invitation, I was compelled to forego the pleasure of fraternising with the brethren of Maine.

R. W. D. C. Clark, Past Grand Master, very kindly volunteered to represent this Grand Lodge on that occasion, and I commissioned him to do so.

Brother Clark, therefore, carried our fraternal greetings to the brethren in Maine and reports having been cordially received and lavishly entertained. Brother Clark very generously carried out his duties without any expense to this Grand Lodge.

On the first day of November I proceeded to Sussex and visited Zion Lodge, No. 21. W. M. A. E. Pearson met me at the depot, and a short time after we were joined by R. W. LeBaron Wilson, Deputy Grand Master, and the Grand Secretary who came up from St. John on the evening train. Later in the evening we were joined by R. W. Roy E. Crawford, Junior Grand Warden, V. W. The Reverend C. Gordon Lawrence, Grand Chaplain, W. Dr. J. S. Bentley, Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, R. W. S. H. Flewwelling, Past Senior Grand Warden, and R. W. Francis F. Burpee, Past Junior Grand Warden. We were very cordially received by the brethren of Zion Lodge and witnessed the Master Mason's degree conferred on two candidates in an excellent manner, adding much to its impressiveness. After Lodge closed refreshments were served and a musical programme provided which was very much enjoyed.

Next morning we proceeded to St. John, and in the evening I visited St. John's Lodge, No. 2 — a large number of Grand Lodge officers being in attendance — and witnessed the First degree conferred in a creditable manner. After Lodge closed refreshments were served in the banquet hall and a pleasant hour spent.

On Thursday evening, November 4th, I visited Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8, with the Grand Lodge officers in support. We were most kindly received by W. M. J. P. Cruikshank and the brethren, a large number of whom were present. The Third degree was excellently worked, after which adjournment was made to the banquet hall where a banquet was served in the style and manner for which the brethren of Carleton Union are famous. Speeches were made by Past Grand Master H. S. Bridges, the Deputy Grand Master, and several others. A pleasing incident occurred when three generations of Brother Wilson's family were seated at the table. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Next evening, November 5th, I went to Hampton in W. Brother Bentley's car which was thoughtfully placed at the disposal of the Grand Lodge officers, several of whom attended, and visited Corinthian Lodge, No. 13. A very cordial welcome was accorded, the Third degree being conferred in a manner that allowed of no criticism. It was a pleasure to meet the brethren of Corinthian Lodge in their beautiful home-like rooms. A banquet and musical programme were provided and thoroughly enjoyed.

On November 15th, accompanied by R. W. D. C. Clark, Past Grand Master, R. W. J. H. Hawthorne, Senior Grand Warden, V. W. Geo. D. Ellis, Grand Treasurer, R. W. J. T. Hartt, Grand Secretary, R. W. R. S. Barker, Past Deputy Grand Master, and W. Brother Percy Burchill, Grand Director of Ceremonies, I visited Alexandria Lodge, No. 33, at Devon. The Entered Apprentice degree was conferred on two candidates, after which refreshments were served. There was a good attendance of the brethren, several from Hiram Lodge coming over for the occasion.

Next evening, November 16th, Hiram Lodge, No. 6, Fredericton, was visited. The same Grand Lodge officers were in attendance, and in addition the V. W. Grand Chaplain and Senior Grand Deacon joined us. The Worshipful Master and brethren of Hiram Lodge, noted for its hospitality, extended a very cordial welcome. The Third degree was conferred in an excellent manner, a sumptuous banquet prepared by the ladies of the Eastern Star being afterward partaken of. Speeches were made by Past Grand Master Clark, the Grand Secretary, the Grand Chaplain, Senior Grand Deacon, Grand Director of Ceremonies, and others. An orchestra was in attendance and a musical programme was enjoyed. A delightful evening was spent.

Next day, November 17th, accompanied by the Grand Treasurer, Grand Chaplain, and Grand Director of Ceremonies, I went to Woodstock and visited Woodstock Lodge, No. 11, where a hearty welcome was accorded us. This Lodge is in a most prosperous condition, the brethren being enthusiastic and diligent, taking great interest in their work and pride in their Lodge. I installed R. W. Brother Edgar W. Mair as District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 4, after which the Entered Apprentice degree was conferred in a manner leaving nothing to be desired. Refreshments were served, and songs by several of the brethren enlivened the proceeding.

Leaving next morning for Florenceville, accompanied by the Grand Treasurer and Grand Director of Ceremonies, I visited Carleton Lodge, No. 35, in the evening. This Lodge has been laboring under difficulties, many of the brethren living in the surrounding country several miles from Lodge headquarters. There has been a large debt on their building, which, however, the Worshipful Master stated had been considerably reduced during the year. The kind words of advice offered by the Grand Master who visited them on a previous occasion, R. W. D. C. Clark, have evidently borne fruit as the brethren were greatly encouraged thereby, and at the present time I found them quite enthusiastic and working hard to perfect themselves in the work of the Ritual and bring the Lodge up to a high standard. There being no candidate present the Entered Apprentice degree was exemplified and, where necessary, errors were pointed out by the Grand Treasurer, who represented the Ritual Committee on that occasion. We were entertained with refreshments at a nearby restaurant. We were taken back to Woodstock the same night by Brothers Hayden and Strong, of Woodstock Lodge, who were good enough to come for us with their car.

On December 3rd, supported by a complete staff of Grand Lodge officers, I visited Albion Lodge, No. 1, in the City of St. John. Worshipful Master Dr. Malcolm and the brethren, of whom there was a large number present, gave us a most cordial welcome. It was a pleasure to witness the precision of the work in the Third degree which was conferred on a candidate. This Lodge has an excellent staff of officers. A banquet and musical and literary entertainment brought a pleasant evening to a close.

I was very glad to be able to accept the invitation of the Worshipful Master of Hibernia Lodge, No. 3, at the personal request of the Worshipful Master-elect, Brother Stanley M. Wetmore, to visit the Lodge and install the Worshipful Master. On January 11th I made the promised visit and installed Brother Wetmore as Worshipful Master, a complete staff of Grand Lodge officers supporting. The Worshipful Master recognizing a weakness in the chain of officers in line for promotion, had the courage of his convictions and placed two Past Masters in the Wardens' chairs. This was accomplished without the least friction, and is to be commended. I understand the Lodge is much benefited thereby, efficiency of the officers being recognized as the great desideratum. I had the pleasure of presenting, at the request of the Worshipful Master, a Past Master's Jewel to W. Brother Robert Clerke, Secretary of the Lodge, and Grand Tyler of this Grand Lodge, as a token of their esteem for this Brother who has served the Craft continuously for fifty years, a distinction reached by only a few. An adjournment was made to the club rooms where a banquet was served which, together with a musical programme and speeches by Past Grand Master H. S. Bridges, Worshipful Master C. D. Strong, of St. John's Lodge, and others, was greatly enjoyed.

On January 18th I left for Sackville to visit Lebanon Lodge, No. 28, but was held up on the road by a wrecked freight train, and only got as far as Moncton the next morning at four o'clock. R. W. Brother Francis F. Burpee, who was to join me at Sackville, explained the situation to the brethren and assisted at the installation of the Worshipful Master and officers.

Next evening, January 19th, I visited Keith Lodge, No. 23, at Moncton. R. W. D. C. Clark, Past Grand Master, Geo. D. Ellis, Grand Treasurer, and S. H. Flewwelling, Past Senior Grand Warden, joined us, as well as Past Masters Rodd and Woodworth, of Lebanon Lodge, and Williston, of Northumberland Lodge. W. M. Robertson received us very cordially and conferred the Entered Apprentice degree very satisfactorily although this was the first time the newly installed officers had worked together. This Lodge is very prosperous and is ambitious for newer and larger quarters, although the Lodge room is very comfortable and attractive. Refreshments were served and a pleasant hour was spent talking with the brethren, a large number being present.

On the twenty-first day of March I officially visited Miramichi Lodge, No. 18, at Chatham. The Grand Treasurer and Grand Director of Ceremonies, along with several Past Masters of Northumberland Lodge, No. 17, as Grand officers accompanied me. Needless to say the welcome by the brethren was enthusiastic and demonstrative. Worshipful Master R. A. Snowball and his regular officers conferred the Master Mason's degree in a satisfactory manner, all the more so as this was the first time the newly installed officers had worked it. Adjournment to the banquet hall followed and a sumptuous repast was enjoyed. Speeches were made by the Grand Treasurer, Grand Director of Ceremonies, Past Master E. W. Jarvis, R. W. R. A. Logie, Past Junior Grand Warden, and others. Worshipful Master Snowball and brethren of Miramichi Lodge proved to be genial hosts.

Leaving the next day, accompanied by the Grand Director of Ceremonies and Brother R. A. Snowball, I went to Campbellton, where we were joined by District Deputy Grand Master A. B. MacKinnon. The same evening I visited Campbellton Lodge, No. 32, where a large number of brethren had assembled to give us a hearty welcome. W. M. Matthews and his officers conferred the Entered Apprentice degree on a candidate in the same careful manner in which Campbellton Lodge always exemplifies the work. I installed Past Master the Reverend Hugh Millar as Grand Steward, after which a banquet was partaken of in the banquet room of the Lodge. The brethren then adjourned to the Lodge room again, where a pleasant hour was spent enjoying the speeches and anecdotes of several of the brethren. This Lodge is one of the most prosperous in the jurisdiction. The membership is large and the brethren support their officers well by a large attendance at all meetings.

The next day, the twenty-third of March, we left for Dalhousie. Several of the brethren from Campbellton going with us. In the evening we visited Restigouche Lodge, No. 25, the Past Masters present from Campbellton Lodge, W. M. Snowball of Miramichi Lodge, Brother P. G. McFarlane, Past Master of Sussex Lodge, No. 7, and the Grand Director of Ceremonies, supporting as Grand Lodge officers. W. M. MacKay and the brethren received us in a very cordial manner. Brother A. B. MacKinnon, Past Master, had been appointed District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 3, and I took the opportunity of installing him as such. The Entered Apprentice degree was conferred on a candidate, the work being exemplified quite satisfactorily. At the request of the Worshipful Master I unveiled a Memorial Tablet erected by the brethren of the Lodge in memory of Brother Robert Mackie who was killed in action. After Lodge closed a splendid banquet was served, provided by the Ladies' Aid of the Memorial Hospital at Campbellton. Speeches were made by Brothers Andrew, Alexander and Collier, of Campbellton Lodge; McFarlane, of Sussex Lodge; R. A. Snowball, the Grand Director of Ceremonies, and others. A pleasant and profitable evening was spent.

Northumberland Lodge, No. 17, at Newcastle, was visited the next evening. The Grand Director of Ceremonies and twenty of the brethren of Miramichi Lodge accompanied me. The welcome was demonstrative, Worshipful Master Coudsi making it plain that the brethren of this Lodge appreciated a visit from the Grand Master. The Fellow Craft degree was exemplified in a careful manner after which we proceeded to the refectory of the Methodist Church where a splendid banquet had been prepared by the Ladies' Aid of that church. Ample justice was done to the good things provided, and speeches were made by several of the brethren. Music was provided by an orchestra.

The tour of the North Shore Lodges was most pleasant and profitable, the brethren evidently appreciating the honor of selecting one of their members by Grand Lodge for the most honorable position of Grand Master. In fact, the brethren of all the Lodges visited throughout the province were most kind and cordial in their welcome.

I am convinced that the visits of the Grand Lodge officers are looked forward to by the brethren with delight and stimulate the interest in Lodge work. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevails, so far as I can judge, in every district I visited. I am under many obligations to the brethren for the kindness and uniform courtesy extended to me on every occasion.

I wish to express my personal thanks to Right Worshipful D. C. Clark, Past Grand Master, Right Worshipful J. Twining Hartt, Grand Secretary, Very Worshipful George D. Ellis, Grand Treasurer, Very Worshipful the Reverend C. Gordon Lawrence, Grand Chaplain, Worshipful J. Percy Burchill, Grand Director of Ceremonies and Worshipful John S. Bentley, M.D., Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, for the loyal support they gave me throughout the year; some of them I am sure at great personal inconvenience and expense, joining me in visiting the more distant Lodges.

Sixteen brethren residing in Blackville and vicinity applied by petition for a warrant to hold a new Lodge. The petition was recommended by the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and brethren of Northumberland Lodge, No. 17.

As these sixteen members of the Craft living twenty-five miles from the nearest Lodge were thus debarred from many of the benefits of Masonry, I issued a dispensation authorizing them to meet as a Lodge. Before doing so, I visited the locality and ascertained that the conditions were favorable for a successful Lodge, and on the ninth day of August I visited Blackville accompanied by R. W. Brother Clark, Past Grand Master, and R. W. Brother Hartt, Grand Secretary, V. W. Brother Ellis, Grand Treasurer, and about twenty brethren of Northumberland and Miramichi Lodges and organized the Lodge under dispensation. Since that time, one of the members has erected a new building part of which has been set apart as a very comfortable lodge room. The brethren have provided the lodge with suitable furniture and regalia costing fourteen hundred dollars without any charge on the Lodge.

The report of the Board of General Purposes, as well as those of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, will be laid before you and will show a healthy increase both financially and numerically. The Grand Master or the Board of General Purposes has not been called upon to adjust or settle any important questions between lodges or individual members during the year. All is peace and harmony within the jurisdiction.

Several Lodges have submitted By-Laws for approval, changes mostly relating to increased fees and dues. In most cases the changes were approved as asked for; in others, slight amendments were made before giving final approval.

Our relations with Grand Lodges with which we hold fraternal intercourse continue to be harmonious. The Grand Secretary's Report will contain the names of the brethren recommended to represent other Grand Lodges near the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick where vacancies occurred.

The pleasing intelligence comes to us from England, that the two eldest sons of His Majesty The King have been appointed and invested Senior Wardens. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who first set foot on Canadian soil in this City of Saint John, and who during his tour of Canada endeared himself to all Canadians, has been invested Senior Warden of the Household Brigade Lodge,

No. 2614, and His Royal Highness the Duke of York has received the same distinction in the Navy Lodge, No. 2612. Thus in another twelve months, both these illustrious brethren will be constitutionally qualified to achieve what many Masons consider the highest honor the Craft can bestow on any of its members "The Mastership of their mother Lodge."

I would strongly endorse the recommendation as set forth by the Grand Master in his annual address to the brethren at a previous session of Grand Lodge, that the office of the Grand Secretary should be located in the Masonic Temple. Suitable rooms could be easily set aside in the building not only as an office where the Grand Secretary and assistant could be available during business hours, but also as a depot for Masonic supplies.

During my official visits, I noticed some brethren, especially in the outside districts, indifferently supplied with proper Masonic Regalia. The quality procured by individual members is often of very inferior material and workmanship. If Grand Lodge would authorize the Grand Secretary to procure standard material guaranteed as to quality from a responsible supply house and furnish it to Private Lodges on repayment, we would have all the brethren properly clothed at less cost to themselves than at present, and I believe it would be a source of revenue to Grand Lodge as well.

I would recommend that both these suggestions be carefully looked into by the Board of General Purposes.

I hope and trust that the deliberations of this communication will be for the material benefit of the Craft.

J. D. B. F. MACKENZIE,
Grand Master.

On motion of R.W. Bro. J. Gordon Forbes, P.G.M., it was Resolved,

"That the Address of the M.W. Grand Master be received and referred to a Special Committee of three for consideration and report."

R.W. Bros. J. Gordon Forbes, Julius T. Whitlock and James Vroom, were constituted the Committee.

The report of the V.W. Grand Secretary was submitted and read, and on motion duly seconded it was received and laid on the table.

REPORT OF HALL COMMITTEE.

ST. JOHN, April 18, 1921.

To the Masonic Grand Lodge Corporation:

The Managing Committee of the Masonic Hall beg to report as follows:

The repairs to the exterior of the building have been carried out as directed by you.

The gravel roof has been patched where necessary and the grating over the central water conductor renewed. The brick work on the top of the east wall has been repaired and covered with metal; all the galvanized work on the roof including the towers has been painted, and the loose slates on the west mansard roof have been replaced by copper. This your Committee feel will be more durable, and will prevent any danger from slates falling to the pavement. Nearly $1,000.00 has been expended on this work.

The east wall has been repointed; extensive repairs have also been made to the towers over the main entrance. These were found to be in such a serious condition, that it was necessary to take down one section, and have it re-built, but your Committee felt the expenditure necessary to preserve the fabric. Three galvanized water conductors were replaced by conductors of copper. This work cost nearly $1,200.00.

Both the boilers and all the steam pipes are being covered with asbestos.

The location of the drain pipe in the boiler room has been changed, so as to give more room in front of the furnaces; an opening has been made in the sidewalk for the removal of ashes, thus saving a hoist of two flights in the rear.

Your Committee are pleased to report that the several Masonic bodies, who promised financial assistance, have paid in $1,298.00, in addition to their rents. Some of these bodies have very generously agreed to increase the grant, and an additional sum of $375.00 is looked for from this source.

The large store over G. & E. Blake's shop has been fitted up and rented to the National Clothing Co., as a sample room, at a yearly rental of $360.00. All the Germain Street stores have been leased to the present occupants at a combined increased rental of $400.00. Your Committee therefore anticipate an increase in the rental receipts of about $1,100.00 for the coming year.

This should make the total receipts from this source about $7,940.00, while the estimated expenditures for the same period will be about $8,500.00.

Respectfully submitted.

GEO. D. ELLIS,
Chairman.

"That the report be received and adopted."

REPORT ON GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

To the M. W. Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick.

BRETHREN:

Your Special Committee to whom was referred the Grand Master's Address beg leave to report thereon as follows:

Grand Lodge rejoices in the unusual prosperity of the Craft in this jurisdiction, to which the M.W. Grand Master calls attention, and will heartily join with him in hoping that our most cherished faith and doctrines will spread as rapidly as our membership, and that our teachings will extend beyond the bounds of our Fraternity until all men acknowledge the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

With the Grand Master, Grand Lodge must deplore the widespread feeling of unrest, the race wars and class wars that threaten more deadly injury to our civilization than the great war of nations with all its dire effects; and, with him, the members of this Grand Lodge, your Committee believe, will welcome every indication that the truths of Freemasonry guide the statesmen and rulers of our Empire and of other lands and that, under Divine Providence, peace and happiness, truth and justice may yet be established throughout the world.

Grand Lodge mourns the loss of the distinguished brethren who will be with us no more, and your Committee would recommend that the names of those who are honoured by mention in the Grand Master's Address be suitably inscribed in the records of our Proceedings.

Your Committee feel sure that Grand Lodge appreciates the good work done by the Grand Master in his official visits, and the happy results; and that the members have noted with pleasure the advancement in Masonry of Their Royal Highnesses The Prince of Wales and The Duke of York.

In conclusion, the Committee recommend that the Grand Master's suggestions respecting an office for the Grand Secretary and a depot for Masonic supplies be referred to the Board of General Purposes for their consideration.

J. G. FORBES.
J. T. WHITLOCK.
J. VROOM.

DISTRICT No. 2.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the Province of New Brunswick:

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR: Before beginning my report, I wish to thank you for the honor conferred upon me in my appointment as District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 2. I regret I had not the pleasure of meeting you during the year on account of my official duties.

On June the 20th, I had the pleasure of attending church service in the Methodist Church, Salisbury, under the auspices of Salisbury Lodge, No. 20. An eloquent and impressive Masonic address was delivered by Rev. N. A. MacNiel, Pastor of the Salisbury group of United Baptist Churches.

On August 29th, on the invitation of Steven Lodge, No. 37, Petitcodiac, I had the pleasure of attending divine service in Episcopal Church, Petitcodiac. A strong and very appropriate Masonic address was given by the Rev. Mr. Mason, Petitcodiac.

On September 28th, I visited Albert Lodge, No. 34, accompanied by a number of the brethren from Salisbury, Keith, Tweedie and Howard Lodges. On account of illness, W.M. Bro. Milburn was obliged to retire, and the Master Mason's degree was conferred by Bro. Jones. The work was commendable, particularly the floor work, showing the officers to be enthusiastic and efficient workmen.

On October 5th, I had the pleasure of visiting Howard Lodge, No. 15, Hillsborough, accompanied by W. Bro. D. W. Kyle, and others, from Moncton. A number were also present from Albert Lodge. The M.M. degree was conferred in a very creditable manner by all the officers, the W. M., Bro. Steeves, proving himself to be a real master of the craft.

On December 27th, on invitation of the W.M., I attended Steven Lodge, No. 37, Petitcodiac, and assisted in installing their officers. The members of Steven Lodge are enthusiastic masons and are looking forward to a successful year.

On January 14th, I was present at the regular communication of Salisbury Lodge, No. 20, and assisted in installing their officers. W. Bro. G. W. Gaynor was installed W. M., and he is supported by a strong body of officers who are determined to make themselves masters in their work.

Upon an invitation from the Grand Secretary to be present with the Grand Lodge officers at Lebanon Lodge, No. 28, Sackville, I had the pleasure of observing the installation of their officers by R.W. Bro. Burpee and R.W. Bro. Kyle, after which the M.M. degree was conferred by

DISTRICT No. 3.

*To the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge
Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick:*

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR: I respectfully beg to submit my report as District Deputy Grand Master for District No. 3.

It has been my privilege and pleasure to visit all the Lodges in my jurisdiction, and in each of these we received a very cordial welcome and were royally entertained.

November 1st, accompanied by W. Bro. S. L. T. Clifford and other brethren of Restigouche Lodge, I officially visited Campbellton Lodge, No. 32, presided over by W. Bro. Hugh Miller. On this occasion the Lodge had as guests about thirty-five of the brethren of Good Samaritan Lodge, New Carlisle, Grand Registry of Quebec. The M. M. degree was conferred in a smooth and impressive manner by the Worshipful Master and his efficient staff of officers.

November 15th, accompanied by Bro. B. J. Collier, of Campbellton Lodge, I visited Miramichi Lodge, No. 18, in Chatham, W. Bro. Ernest S. Jack presiding, and the M. M. degree was conferred in a creditable manner.

November 16th, we visited Northumberland Lodge, No. 17, in Newcastle, where the E. A. degree was conferred on three candidates by W. Bro. Stothart and his officers in a manner that left nothing to be desired.

November 17th, we visited Lodge St. Andrew, No. 16, in Richibucto, where W. Bro. George Irving was the presiding officer, and the E. A. degree was conferred. In this case, due I think in large measure to the fact that the brethren are so scattered, the work leaves a good deal to be desired, and to bring it up to a proper standard requires concentrated effort on the part of the W. M. and his officers.

In this connection, I have been assured by the W. M. of Miramichi Lodge that he and his officers will gladly lend every possible assistance.

November 25th, accompanied by W. Bro. T. G. Scott, of Restigouche Lodge, I visited Lodge St. John, No. 27, in Bathurst, presided over by W. Bro. G. W. Ellis. The work of the E. A. degree was conferred.

St. John's night, December 27th, assisted by W. Bro. S. L. T. Clifford, I installed W. Bro. Murray MacKay, and his officers, of Restigouche Lodge.

Tuesday, March 22nd, it was my privilege to accompany you on your official visit to Campbellton Lodge, and March 23rd to assist in receiving you and Grand Lodge officers on the occasion of your official visit to Restigouche Lodge.

I desire to express my appreciation of the assistance rendered by the brethren who accompanied me on these visits, particularly to Bro. Collier, of Campbellton Lodge, who made it convenient to be with me at Chatham, Newcastle, Richibucto and Bathurst.

Also, Most Worshipful Sir, I desire to convey to you my sincere appreciation of the honor you have done me in entrusting to me the supervision of District No. 3 during the past year.

Fraternally yours,

A. B. MACKINNON,
District Deputy Grand Master, District No. 3.

Dalhousie, N. B.,
March 26th, 1921.

DISTRICT No. 5.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick:

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR: It has been my pleasure to visit all the lodges in this District during the current Masonic year, a condensed report of which is respectfully submitted as follows:

On June 29th, St. George Lodge, No. 12, was visited, the E. A. degree was exemplified by the officers in a creditable and painstaking manner. This Lodge is in a flourishing condition, owns its own Hall, and is doing good Masonic work from every standpoint, and the meetings are well attended.

On November 4th, St. Mark's Lodge, No. 5, at St. Andrews, N. B., was visited. The officers worked the E. A. degree and the work done proved that St. Mark's, No. 5, had lost none of its reputation for the dignity and impressiveness. Here, as in St. George, the Craft owns its own building, which is well equipped, and the Lodge itself showing every evidence of prosperity. Its meetings being well attended a large proportion of the members are young men and actively interested in the welfare of the Lodge.

The visit to Victoria Lodge, No. 26, at Milltown, N. B., was made on November 11th. The Worshipful Master and officers worked the E. A. degree, which as usual in Victoria Lodge was done in a very creditable manner. The building occupied is well adapted for Lodge purposes, the equipment is good and the interest of the members both young and old indicates not only prosperity but a true Masonic feeling. Its rapidly growing membership is very noticeable and speaks well for its future.

Ashlar Lodge, No. 36, at McAdam, N. B., was visited on November 18th. The F. C. degree was worked by the officers of the Lodge in their customary impressive manner.

The meeting was well attended and a very gratifying feeling of good fellowship prevailed.

The visit to Alley Lodge, No. 14, at Upper Mills, N. B., was made on December 2nd. Owing to winter conditions and the temporary absence of many of its members no degree work was done, the evening being spent socially and in the discussion of Masonic matters of interest to both the visitors and members of the Lodge.

An official visit to my Mother Lodge, Sussex, No. 7, at St. Stephen, N. B., was made on March 1st. The F. C. and M. M. degrees were conferred by the officers of the Lodge in their usual impressive manner.

Mananook Lodge, No. 38, at Grand Manan, N. B., was visited on March 16th. The E. A., F. C. and M. M. degrees were exemplified by the officers of the Lodge assisted by P. M. Roy Gillman, of St. Mark's Lodge, No. 5, and myself, followed by a general discussion of the work and suggestions for the working of the several degrees in the future. In the exemplification of the work I observed strong evidence of the presence of the Ritual of a neighboring jurisdiction, and take the liberty of repeating my recommendation of last year that a member of the Ritual Committee should visit Grand Manan and assist them in their work.

All of the Lodges in District No. 5 are apparently enjoying an era of prosperity, petitions for membership are more numerous than formerly. The Lodge rooms are well equipped with every thing necessary for working the degrees. Most of the Lodges own the buildings in which they meet and an air of prosperity prevails in all of them. The records and books are well and carefully kept. True Masonic hospitality was extended to me and the members of other Lodges who accompanied me on all the visits made. The social and fraternal side of Masonry was abundantly present on every occasion. Respectfully submitted,

W. B. HAWTHORNE,

D. D. Grand Master, District No. 5.
